RTSD is now on Twitter!

Here's the basics

About @RadnorTSD

- Increased community engagement is one of RTSD's 2012-13 SMART goals. A RTSD social media presence aligns with the district's overall mission of Building for the Future.
- The name of Radnor Township School District's Twitter account is @RadnorTSD
- @RadnorTSD will deliver regular and impactful RTSD news straight to you, including:
  - Notifications on school closings & other time-sensitive updates
  - Details on upcoming events
  - News on student & school achievements
  - Links to media coverage of RTSD
  - Much more
- To follow RTSD, type "RadnorTSD" in Twitter's Search Bar at www.twitter.com, click the Twitter icon on the www.RTSD.org homepage, or go directly to twitter.com/RadnorTSD.

New to Twitter?

- Joining Twitter is easy. Simply visit www.twitter.com and complete the Sign Up section on the homepage.
- Once you're set up, use Twitter's Search function to find people or outlets you're interested in. "Follow" them to have their tweets sent directly to your Twitter page.

Key Twitter Terms

Retweet (RT): A reposting of another's tweet.

Hashtag (#): The hashtag symbol (#) is used before a word or phrase to group tweets from various users about the same subject together.

The @ symbol: Typed in a tweet before a user's name to send a direct message to them.

About Twitter

- Twitter lets you learn about and connect with people and subjects you're interested in.
- Through short messages of 140 characters or less, called "tweets," users share information about all sorts of news, events and other happenings.
- Twitter can be accessed on your computer at www.twitter.com or through a Twitter application downloaded on your mobile phone.
