
BUSINESS ETHICS

Overview

Ethical decision making is essential in the business world and the workplace. This team event recognizes FBLA members who demonstrate the ability to present solutions to ethical situations encountered in the business world and the workplace.

Topic

The topic for Business Ethics changes every year. Refer to the Guidelines section in the Chapter Management Handbook to find the current topic for the event or look at competitive events under the FBLA tab at www.fbla-pbl.org.

Students are responsible for researching an ethical case based on the given topic and must submit six copies of a written synopsis no longer than 500 words on the case selected. Copies must be submitted in six labeled, unbound folders to the national center by the second Friday in May. All students will present at the NLC.

This event is a team of two or three members.

Performance Competencies

- Make ethical business decisions in the business world and workplace
- Provide a rationale for ethical decisions presented
- Critical thinking and problem solving
- Have outstanding verbal communication skills
- Effectively answer questions
